PLANNING NEW TAX TO OBTAIN FUNDS TO PAY SOLDIERS

Republican Members Plan Increased Taxes On Tobacco And Incomes to Pay Bonuses

Stock Exchange Transactions May Be Taxed Liberally

The Tax Would Raise About $1,500,000,000 Annually

(By Associated Press)
Washington, April 22.—A tax on all stock exchange transactions equal to the broker's commission has been agreed on tentatively by republican members of the House Ways and Means Committee as one of the new levies for raising money for soldier bonus legislation.

Three other levies for raising the money, similarly have been adopted by the republicans. These are a one percent levy on the final sales to consumers, a new levy on incomes probably in excess of $5,000 and an increase of approximately 15 percent on existing taxes on tobacco and cigars.

The four forms of taxes would remain in effect two years and it is estimated they would net about $1,500,000,000 for soldier relief. They will be incorporated in the legislation to be presented in the House for adoption May 3rd.

5,000 OUTLAW STRIKERS VOTE TO REMAIN OUT

Jersey City Scene of Mass Meeting at Which Strike Vote is Cast.

Claim They Will Remain Out Until Labor Board Has Given Decision.

(By Associated Press)
New York, April 22.—Approximately 5,000 railroad strikers meeting in Jersey City today voted not to return to work but to appeal to men on all railroads who have not walked out to do so in their support. The position of the strikers was confirmed by Edward McHugh, chairman of the strikers' executive committee, who said the men had decided to "remain out if necessary until the railroad labor board handed down a decision."

"Brotherhood leaders cannot recall the men to work," he said. "They can't keep men on the job to protect their contracts with the railroads. The next move must come from the railroad managers who have denied an extension of their ultimatum."

ary increase of forty per cent. The photo was taken at the first meeting of the board at which seven of the nine members were present. Hangar, a member of the public group and secretary of the board, hails from Washington, D. C.

REVOLUTION IN MEXICO SPREADS TO NEW STATES

United States Position Expected To Be Merely That Of An Observer.

Opposition to Carranza Rule Grows Hourly in Many Districts.

(By Associated Press)
Washington, April 22.—Reports both to the State and War Departments today continued to support the unofficial dispatches that have told of the rapidly increasing area of revolt in Mexico.

Administration officials studied them carefully, but without betraying any indication that the position of this government would be other than that of an observer.

The movement begun by the secession of Sonora has gained the support of at least four other states, the adherence of various groups of federal forces and the promise by Villa and other rebel leaders that they will join in the fight on Carranza, the reports showed.

So far as could be learned here Carranza has made no overtures to the American government for assistance. The rulings which have prevented his government from getting arms and ammunition in this country are still in effect.

The presence here of General Alvarado, as the unofficial representative of Obregon, accepted leader of the new revolt, has not brought from the administration any sign of its willingness to recognize the belligerency of the anti-government regime.

ANOTHER SHOT

(By Associated Press)
Butte, Montana, April 22.—City and county authorities today investigated a clash last night near the Neversweet mine here in which 11 men were shot.

Most of the wounded were said to be pickets placed about the mine following the calling of a strike by the metal mine workers' union to enforce demands for wage increases and release of "all political prisoners."

The shooting began, according to the sheriff, while he and a force of deputies were dispersing a crowd. Hugh Haran, a guard in front of the Daily Bulletin, said to be the organ of the union, was shot and killed today by Joe Papst, another guard who was arrested. He said the shooting was accidental.

SEEK BIG ACREAGE FOR SPRING WHEAT

United States Department of Agriculture Points Out Necessity Of Such Action to Meet Domestic Demands For Wheat In America Because Short Crop of Winter Wheat.

WASHINGTON, APRIL 22.—(Associated Press)—Reports from the spring wheat regions of a plan for reduced acreage this year caused the Department of Agriculture to issue a statement today urging farmers to revise their planting plans.

Weather conditions and a shortage of farm labor have affected the planting, but statistics presented by the department advised increased production because of the poor condition of the winter crop and the continued world demand for wheat.

The normal requirements for consumption and export are about 800 million bushels, and of this amount only about 484,000,000 bushels is indicated from the winter wheat this year.

It was pointed out the winter wheat may be even less because of winter killed fields and indications that the hessian fly will be unusually active through large areas.

ANOTHER BIG DROP STRIKES MAY CORN

Sharp Break Occurs Immediately Upon Opening Chicago Grain Market.

Six-Cent Drop Again Recorded In Corn For May Delivery

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, April 22.—Sharp new breaks took place today in the corn market right at the outset. The heaviest fall was in the May delivery which in some cases exhibited a descent of six cents a bushel since last night.

Renewed weakness in the New York stock market was the main reason given.

Initial prices in corn had a much wider range than usual and for the May delivery were as much as two cents a part for simultaneous trades in different parts of the pit. May started at $1.62 to $1.64 as compared with $1.66½ to $1.68 at yesterday's close.

The corn market as a whole opened one half cent to six cents lower with July at $1.56½ to $1.57½.

After the opening, however, commission house buying increased and a sharp rally followed. Price fluctuations were so rapid that the blackboard quotations were frequently far out of line with the actual market.

BEAR FACTION AGAIN ACTIVE

(By Associated Press)

New York, April 22.—Efforts of an aggressive bear faction to effect additional depression of prices in the stock market today met with little success although dealings in the early hours were again extensive at lower levels.

Supporting orders in large volume were placed late, however, effecting many losses and resulting in a number of substantial gains.

Ease of call money conveying assurance of sound financial conditions were the factor in the recoveries.

As I have depended on Vinol to build me up every spring for the past nine years with such good results, I tried it. My appetite improved, my strength came back so I am not only taking care of my household duties, but direct the management of two large farms. I tell all my friends to use Vinol when they need strength." — Mrs. MARTHA SICKLES.

Women who are run-down, nervous, lack energy and working strength should take Vinol as it contains Beef and Cod Liver Peptides, Iron and Hypophosphites, the very elements needed to restore a lost appetite, enrich the blood and create strength.

Lesson in Optometry*LESSON FOUR.

In the last lesson astigmatism was mentioned. What causes it?

Astigmatism is caused by the eyeball being improperly shaped.

With what result to the patient?

If the astigmatism is pronounced, objects appear distorted to him. If the astigmatism is slight, the muscles of the eye may be able to overcome it and objects may appear clear and distinct.

If a person with a slight degree of astigmatism sees objects clearly, in what way is this defect a detriment to him?

As before explained, a slight defect may be overcome, but in accomplishing this the muscles of the eyes are unduly strained, which often causes a nervous reflex.

What is a nervous reflex?

It is an annoying result of eye strain, which through the nervous system may be manifested in headaches, nervousness and other disorders.

WOMAN CLAIMS SHE SAW YOUTH DROWN IN CREEK

Mrs. Henry Osborn Declares Man or Boy on Log Was Drowned South of City.

Says Log Was Caught in Eddy and Youth, After Screaming For Help, Went Down.

Considerable excitement was caused in this city about noon, Thursday, by the report that a man or boy had drowned in Paint creek at the point where the East Fork of the creek joins the main creek near the Hamm Fertilizer plant. Thorough search by Undertaker Elmer Kiever, who was immediately summoned and a great crowd of citizens failed to find a trace of the body, however.

Mrs. Henry Osborn, who lives near the site of the tragedy, claims that she saw the person coming down the creek on a log. It was either a good sized boy or man, she declared. When he reached main Paint the log was caught in the whirling eddies of the flooded stream and the victim was thrown into the water, she asserts.

Screaming for help the drowning man or boy went under three times while Mrs. Osborn ran for help as quickly as possible, according to the woman's story.

When Mr. Kiever made a search of all places close by where the body might have lodged, no trace of the victim could be found. At the junction point of the two streams the water is many feet deep and the body, if a man drowned, is possibly resting on the bottom of the stream, is the opinion of the undertaker.

Thorough search for the body is made almost impossible by the condition of the stream which is out of banks far into the fields on either side. A close watch will be kept on the back water for the appearance of the body.

Thus far no one has been reported missing and if the person did drown, as Mrs. Osborn is positive that he did, it was probably not a local man or boy.

No further search for the missing man has been made and the stream has not been dragged although a crowd was on the scene the greater part of the afternoon.

Should anyone be missing relatives are asked to report to Chief of Police D. L. Moore.

Action taken by the Union Township Board of Education has resulted in arrangements for submitting to a ballot of the voters of the East Union township school district on Saturday, May 15th, the question of issuing $45,000 in bonds for the erection of a school building at or near the intersection of the Bogas road and the Circleville pike and for the addition of a room to the Chaffin school building.

While full plans for the improvement have not been developed it is understood that the building to be erected, if approved by the people, will be a modern school and will have a capacity of caring for all school children of the district in which the proposed building is to be located.

Crowded conditions at the Chaffin school is the urgent need of an addition, money for which is to be included in the bond issue submitted to the voters on May 5th.

River Traffic Active

The tie up of the railroad lines by the "unauthorized" strike of switchmen and yardmen during the last few weeks resulted in bringing to navigable waterways some of their old time activity.

Down the historic Ohio from Pittsburg to Cairo and on down the broad Mississippi, the Father of Waters, every available cargo carrying craft was pressed into service to carry badly needed freight to the suffering communities all through the prosperous valleys.

The few majestic river steamers in condition to be navigated were backed out of harbors and placed again in service, the electric launches, the pleasure craft of all kinds, the barges and even the flat boat and "Joe boats," all were brought into use.

Scenes at the wharves and levees took on an old time activity and the days of old seemed to have come again. The amount of relief furnished, considering the fact that river craft had largely passed out of existence, was wonderful and is a mighty proof of the great use to which the waterways can be put if we would but do so. That method of transportation is cheaper, more certain and is, above all, unlimited in its carrying capacity. The demonstration given during strike times should arouse our legislators and executives to the relief, from oppressive conditions, which is within their grasp.

If we would but turn again to the means of transportation which generous nature has builded for us, much of our real trouble would vanish and the happy days of romance and beauty, boats, with captains and mates and the roustabouts and all would come again when the mighty rivers are again allowed to serve man's purpose as they did when their strong currents carried the early settlers into the land of promise and served them after they had made homes in the wilderness.

Going Backward

When we learn of the enormous profits piled up by some of the concerns manufacturing or dealing in necessities it is not difficult to arrive at a conclusion, satisfactory to ourselves at least, which explains the high cost of many of life's essentials.

It is difficult, however, to explain why the government officials permit such conditions to exist and, at the same time, keep a small army of inspectors and sleuths traveling about the country bothering the retail dealers.

We have no excuse to offer for the retail profiteer—none can be offered. He should be punished, but the remedy for the high living cost is not to be found in pursuing the small retailer. All the retail dealers, save a very small percent, are in the same boat with the consumer.

It is inexplicable why the government officials should train their batteries upon the small retailers, rake them fore and aft, compel all sorts of reports and then, apparently allow the concerns responsible directly for high living costs to continue their operations uninterrupted and that too when they very concerns have, themselves, in income tax returns, furnished the evidence of their guilt.

If the motion of some of the government's human machinery is not reversed soon we are in danger of becoming a nation of chronic grumblers and complainers.

When we see the much heralded war against profiteers actually working backward it's enough to take the courage out of the most optimistic.

April Storms

Spring storms—high winds, lightning, heavy rains and resulting floods in the streams,—creeks and rivers—have exacted, throughout the middle West, during the past week a heavy toll in human life and property and crop destruction.

The storms have been heavy but not unprecedented and while the havoc wrought in places is to be deeply regretted we need not be too much cast down.

Work on the farms hereabouts has been halted. The ground is literally soaked with water for a depth of many inches, making plowing and the usual spring work of preparing the ground for crops, impossible for several days.

The storm king touched this section, though, very lightly, in comparison to the work elsewhere and we have every reason to be thankful for having escaped so well.

With the coming of the sun on Wednesday morning we all felt justified in hoping that the usual spring deluge of rains and floods is past for this year.

Wednesday morning, just before daybreak, with a last burst of furious wind, driving rain and rolling thunder, the great storm which had been hovering over us in menacing clouds for days roared away into the southwest to join other sections, which, passing farther south had inflicted heavy loss of life and tremendous property damage.

POETRY FOR TODAY

THE SLEEPY SONG

As soon as the fire burns red and low,
 And the house upstairs is still,
 She sings me a queer little sleepy song,
 Of sheep that go over the hill.

The good little sheep run quick and
 soft,
 Their colors are gray and white;
 They follow their leaders, nose and tail,
 For they must be home at night.

And one slips over, and one comes
 next,
 And one runs after behind;
 The gray one's nose at the white one's tail,
 The top of the hill they find.

And over they go and over they go,
 And over the top of the hill
 The good little sheep run quick and
 soft,
 And the house upstairs is still.

And one slips over and one comes
 next,
 The good little, gray little sheep:
 I watched how the fire burns red and low
 And she says that I fall asleep.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

The initial dance of the Hughey Post, American Legion, at the K. of P. Castle Wednesday night was successful beyond all expectations socially and financially. The banner crowd of many balls at the handsome K. of P. home—a hundred and ninety couples—were on the floor and the dancers included a large number from other places, Chillicothe, Circleville, Mt. Sterling, Columbus, Xenia, London, Greenfield, Wilmington, Sedalia and surrounding towns.

There was a suggestion of the army life in the canteen, which was typical and in operation throughout the evening, in charge of Mr. R. A. Tharp.

Effective decorations of flags and hunting also added the patriotic note. "Howard's Jazz Babies," a peppy orchestra, furnished music that was heartily encored. Arrangements had been made to secure Howard himself, but a last minute summons to Chicago necessitated the sending of one of his substitute orchestras.

The dance was informal and enjoyed in the gayest spirits.

An excellent lunch was served at the long tables of the dining room and was quite apart from the canteen, at which was cleared between forty and fifty dollars.

The affair was splendidly managed by the committee, Capt. Charles Allen, Chm., R. A. Tharp, James McDonald, T. H. Craig Jr., J. Kent Hopkins, M. W. Clasen, D. L. Moore, Chas. S. Willis, Emmitt Passmore, Burris Tharp, Burnett Hyer.

Mrs. Mamie Eady was in charge of the ladies dressing room.

Surprising and interesting their families as well as a host of friends came the announcement of the marriage of Miss Frances Bending, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bending to Mr. Ray D. Post, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Post, the ceremony performed in Circleville Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock. Rev. David McDonald, Episcopal rector, of Circleville, officiated, using the Episcopal ring service.

The bride was charming in a smart tailored suit of navy blue, with hat to match and black fox furs.

Mr. and Mrs. Post came to this city immediately after the ceremony and are temporarily with Mr. Post's mother, where they are receiving all manner of good wishes.

The bride, bright, interesting girl was a graduate of the Washington C. H. High School and later attended Mt. St. Joseph's Academy. About two years ago she took a business course in Columbus and since its completion has held a position there.

The bride-groom is a capable young business man, head bookkeeper at the P. Hagerty Shoe Co., and popular both in business and outside circles. He was in military service and is now Adjutant of the local Post of the American Legion.

The April meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church was both interesting and pleasurable to an unusual degree Wednesday afternoon.

Sixty women enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. G. W. Blakeley's handsome home together with fine papers, well presented.

Following the opening business, in charge of the President, Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins, delegates gave the report of the recent Presbyterian meeting.

Mrs. R. S. Quinn was program leader, the month's subjects, "The American Negro" and "Africa."

The subject "Changing Conditions of Negro Americans" was ably handled in a paper written by Mrs. Jess Persinger and, in her absence from town, read by Mrs. Frank Jackson. Statistics were given to show the progress made by the Negro, to whom are now opening positions which demand that he measure up to the new work.

The writer said that the negro welcomes the opportunity to better his condition.

Three periods marked in his life are 1620, when negroes were first brought here as slaves; 1863, when their conditions were bettered by the emancipation proclamation, which led to their present progress, and today which sees for them the dawning of a new era.

Miss Emma Jackson contributed a splendid paper, "The Great Opportunity of Presbyterian Missions" A vast amount of condensed and startling information was presented to show the missionary work which has been done and which is now so greatly needed. The world need is the missionary call. The statement that one half the inhabitants of the world can neither read nor write was one of the most startling made.

The writer said that in Africa people were begging for a few words about the "Jesus Man," in China the need of physicians was appalling, there being only one trained doctor to 427,000 inhabitants; in Afghanistan Christians are punished with death; in certain parts of South America there is but one native pastor for a million people; in our own country there are three million uneducated mountaineers and even in our own country surprising conditions exist, which afford right at our door great opportunities.

A beautiful Victrola record of "The Holy City" was played and followed by the last paper, an interesting resume of "Africa, Then and Now, 1870-1920," by Mrs. Albert Barney and read by her sister, Miss Alva Rodgers.

The American Board was first on the West Coast of Africa, but has been handicapped by restrictions made by different governments.

The older people in Africa are unwilling to change to new forms of religion, but younger people and especially women, who are most benefited, welcome Christianity. One minister reports a nine days session of meetings with a baptismal service administered to 225.

The social hour was delightful, with Victrola music and a tempting collation served by the hostesses, Messdames Blakeley, W. B. Gage, Reil Allen, Mary Rodgers, Charles Briggs, Roy McClure, J. A. Worrell, L. P. Howell, J. L. Rothrock, Albert Barney, E. A. Ellis, Charles Persinger, Ray Vannhman, Lulu Robinson, J. J. Zimmerman, Frank Flee, Katharine Wissler.

The young women of Mrs. Eva Penn's Sunday School Class of Grace M. E. Church came together for an enjoyable little social session, in the church parlors Wednesday evening.

There was a goodly representation of the members, the committee composed of Misses Helen Ginn, Jessie Mantle, Elton Brown, Mrs. Mazie Price who had planned contests and other entertainment for the guests, served appetizing refreshments before the evening was brought to a close.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian Church met at the home of Mrs. Calverna Williams on N. North street, Wednesday afternoon.

The bright Spring afternoon brought forth an unusually large attendance, and excellent reports were given by all the committees, showing the splendid success of the Easter Sale.

A social meeting was planned for the month of May, at the home of the President, Mrs. L. A. Mark, the slogan for the meeting to be, "Every Member Present."

There will be a formal organization of the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday night, April twenty-seventh at seven-thirty in the High School Auditorium. The meeting is open to the public, but especially are the members urged to be present.

The High School girls will furnish special music and interesting stunts.

Mrs. Howard Engle filled the role of hostess to the Thursday Kensington Club, the guests confined to the club members.

Mrs. Engle had made her home doubly attractive with potted plants and daffodils from her own gardens and the afternoon was one of much pleasure.

Dainty refreshments were served.

Friday evening April the twenty-third the members of the Woman's World Wide Guild of the Baptist Church will entertain the church members, and their families in the church parlors.

Plans are being completed for a very enjoyable evening.

Miss Iris Marchant has resigned her position in the Pittsburgh office of the Pennsylvania railroad to spend the summer with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Grant Marchant in Milledgeville, returning this week to her home, Mrs. A. F. Whitfield, of Harland, Ky., a class mate of Miss Marchant's at Mt. St. Joseph, has been a guest at the Marchant home for several days, returning to her home the last of the week.

S'ALL SETTLED HILLSBORO WINS

The origin of the crusade has been settled once more by J. H. Galbraith, in the Columbus Dispatch, who says: "Washington C. H. can have no claim to being the place of the organization of the Saloon Crusade, which was the fore runner of the W. C. T. U. and the Anti-Saloon League—agencies that have placed prohibition in the constitution," says William T. McClure, well known Columbus attorney.

Mr. McClure lived as a boy and a young man, near Hillsboro. He was about twelve years old when Dr. Dio Lewis came to Hillsboro to deliver a lecture. "Several things," said he, "cause me to remember that lecture very well. Lewis had been well advertised over the country as an expert in hygiene and as a dietician. His teachings were very popular.

"As I recall it he did not come as a temperance speaker. But I had read about him and decided to go to town that night and attend his lecture. I rode in from the farm on horseback. Usually such entertainments charged a quarter for admission and that was all the money I had with me.

"I laid it down at the ticket seller's window with confidence, and was chagrined when the man pushed it back with the remark that the admission was fifty cents. I turned to go away, when he called me back and said it was all right and I could go in on my quarter, and I did. The ticket-seller was an older brother of Senator Foraker. He was a cashier in a bank in Hillsboro at the time.

"As I remember the address of Dr. Lewis, it was not particularly effective as an argument against intemperance, although he dwelt on that subject at length, and denounced the saloon, but my notion is that his words fell on good ground, and that was why they caught hold and fired the women in the audience to organize and fight the saloon. It happened that there were number of women there from prominent families that had suffered from the drink habit—sisters and wives of men who had been ruined in that way. That the crusade movement sprang directly out of that address of Dr. Lewis at Hillsboro there can be no doubt."

ROCK AND RYE IN RAW STAGE

Greenburg, Pa., April 22.—What some people regard as a heaven-sent relief has made this town a mecca for thirsty prospectors from all over western Pennsylvania. Reports of the existence of a "whisky rock" on the big Huffedale farm near here caused a rush of strangers that makes the town look like a boom community of the old west. According to the report a chip from the rock, when dissolved in water, would make a pint of hard stuff with a real kick.

The farm is big and has many rocks.

REASON SO MANY SMALL CHICKS DIE

From 50 to 80 percent of the chicks hatched die before they reach maturity. This loss can be greatly reduced by proper feeding and care, says E. L. Dekan poultry extension specialist at the Ohio State University. One of the important things to remember, he says, is that the baby chicks should not be fed before they are 48 hours old. Many of the best 1,600-metre steeplechase handicaps, a poultrymen do not feed them until they are 72 hours old. Many people feed baby chicks too much. They should be fed very lightly the first week and four or five times a day.

Rolled oats make an excellent feed for the first week. Cracked corn and wheat or any of the commercial chick feeds also makes a satisfactory feed for starting chicks. After the first week or two, corn or wheat may be used exclusively as a grain feed.

The growing chick should be provided with the necessary elements for development of the body. This requirement can be met only by providing some animal protein such as that found in milk, meat scrap or tankage. If milk is available, chicks should have all that they can consume from the time of the first feeding until mature. If meat scrap or tankage is used as a source of protein the chicks should be fed a dry mash composed of two parts bran, two parts shorts, two parts cornmeal and one-fourth to one half part meat scrap or tankage. Keep this in self-feeders before the chicks at all times. The dry mash without the tankage or meat scrap should also be fed to chicks that have plenty of milk.

GREAT HOME MAN WON SUCCESS FROM THE SOIL

Henry Cripps Never Outside of County But Once And Rode Once on Train.

Sought Success at Home And Died One of County's Wealthiest Citizens.

There are few young people nowadays, who, when they have reached the age of young manhood and womanhood, do not go out from their homes or from their own home towns, and make the try for riches in some distant land or city. Without variation they have the idea that they must not settle down in their home environments and the saying that "genius is never recognized by a man's friends" is thoroughly jotted down in the mind of the young man or woman. The result is that the majority of those starting out on a career begin it where they are comparatively unknown.

Not so with Henry Cripps, who passed away Wednesday morning at the age of 69 after having accumulated hundreds of acres of land valued at tens of thousands of dollars. Mr. Cripps never but one time set foot outside the boundaries of Fayette County and never but one time in his life did he ride on a railroad train. He was born in Fayette county, made his fortune within its boundaries, and there died.

As a hard-working, industrious, silent man, there were few who knew him intimately, but those who came within his friendship understood his inner self and found in him real manhood and a deep sense of justice.

The one instance that he rode on train occurred several years ago on passenger service was supplied by the railroad to the Fayette County fair grounds from this city. Mr.

Cripps consented to make the trip and rode to the grounds.

He was out of Fayette county once. That happened when he was called to Sabina, just a few miles over the county line. He never ventured farther.

His home habits were simple. He read but little and confined even this to his business pursuits.

Strangest of all there were no rocking chairs in the Cripps home and all the furnishings were plain.

When he married, Mr. Cripps chose a woman with the same standards of life and his wife, who died on the eleventh day of last December was of the same conservative type and of the same nature. Mrs. Cripps, while an energetic woman, bettered her husband in traveling and died without having crossed the boundaries of the county. She, however, loved to read and the literature of the day was always at hand for her pleasure.

Between seven and eight hundred acres of the best land in Fayette county remain to testify to the success that came to Mr. Cripps. His property is valued at between two and three hundred thousand dollars and it was accumulated without the owner ever once going outside the reach of his own business friends.

TRUCKS MAROONED AT KENTON, OHIO

A fleet of trucks carrying six Fordson tractors from the plant at Dearborn, Michigan, and in charge of Walter Peterson, has been marooned at Kenton, Ohio, the past two days, as result of the high water.

V. J. Hoppes left Thursday for Kenton and goes thence to Detroit where he will assist a dozen other men in bringing down new trucks and cars, from the Ford plant.

STREAMS FALLING QUITE RAPIDLY

The streams of Fayette county have been falling rapidly since Wednesday evening, and all flood dangers have passed.

The damage in Fayette county has not been extensive.

MUST LAY PIPE

All property owners on South North street who have not laid new lead pipes to the water mains are expected to do so immediately in order that the street work may not be tied up.

POET FOLLOWERS ARE WELL NAMED

(By Associated Press.)

Flume. (By Mail)—Gabriele d'Annunzio's bald head has set the fashion for the officers of his little army, many of whom have shaved their craniums and are endeavoring to grow miniature Vandike beards as copies of the poet's chin adornment.

The Flume aviators have adopted the craze with greater zeal than other branches and call themselves "Iron Heads." Youthful officers in their teens and early twenties have shaved their heads and are wearing little pointed beards in an effort to look as much like the poet as they can.

Mixed uniforms of French horizon-blue and Italian grey-green are worn by d'Annunzio's men with great pride.

A Woman's Mistake

Substitutes Often Worthless

It is a well-known fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most successful remedy for woman's ills obtainable. Actually thousands of women have proved this to be true. Notwithstanding, some women make the mistake of trying something else, said to be just as good, simply because it is new.

Is it not foolish to risk the possible bad results of such experiments—and is it not better to depend upon a medicine that you know is reliable—a medicine that has had no equal for more than forty years?

Read what these Women Think About It

North East, Md.—"I was in ill health four or five years and doctored with one doctor after another but none helped me. I was irregular and had such terrible pain in my back, lower part of my body and down each side that I had to go to bed three or four days every month. I was very nervous, tired, could not sleep and could not eat without getting sick. A friend asked me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am sorry I did not take it sooner for it has helped me wonderfully. I don't have to go to bed with the pain, can eat without being sick and have more strength. I recommend your medicine and you are at liberty to publish my testimonial."—ELIZABETH WEAVER, R. R. 2, North East, Md.

Utica, N. Y.—"I was all run down and had no energy or ambition and no strength to do my work. I went to the doctor's office every other day and could hardly crawl to get there and back. My husband wanted me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and he got me a bottle and in two weeks this medicine did me more good than the doctor's medicine had done in ten. I kept on until I had taken ten bottles and felt like a new woman. Now I do all my own work besides all kinds of dressmaking and sometimes paper hanging. I will recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as long as I live and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. R. O. TANNER, 610 Plant St., Utica, N. Y.

IT'S M-I-L-K COW NOT M-I-L-C-H COW

The time honored custom of spelling milk cow has passed, and hereafter when reference is made to a milk cow it will not be spelled m-i-l-c-h, according to the United States Department of Agriculture.

This decision marks the termination of a controversy in which etymologists in the department have had not a little interest. Those defending "milch" have pointed to scriptural use and certain of the classics as establishing precedents, while the opposition has contended that dairymen, ranchmen, and farmers in general use "milk" instead of "milch" almost universally. The advocates of "milk" also favored that word because, they contended, it was more strictly an English word, while "milch" was akin to German. Since Americanization of language as well as ideals is an article in every patriot's creed, it is thought that this last sally of the "milk" defenders helped as much as any to decide the question in their favor.

LITTLE TOTS GRASP OVERALL MOVEMENT

Little folks in the public school, impressed by the showing of the high school students in their overalls and gingham, have taken on the new custom and are attending their classes in much the same garb as that set forth by the older pupils.

The boys have donned their blue denim and khaki overalls while the little girls have supplied themselves with a miniature apron to save the wear and tear on the gingham and sometimes calico dresses.

Mothers are behind the movement and have readily supplied their children with the necessary clothing to join the "Overalls Club" and "Calico Club."

FIFTY PERCENT OF RETURNS IN

Fully fifty percent of the tax returns of Fayette county citizens have been received at the office of County Auditor Pine and all returns must be in his office not later than May 1st to avoid penalty provided by law when returns are not made by that time.

During the rainy weather farmers have had exceptional opportunity for filling out their returns.

Particular attention of automobile owners is called to the law which provides a penalty of 50 percent when returns on autos are not made by May 1st.

Persons waiting until the final days to make returns will necessarily be compelled to wait their turn if caught in the final jam at the Auditor's office.

WE'RE ALL RIGHT WHEN WE KEEP A BOTTLE HANDY

Farmer Keeper Refers to Nerv-Worth, Which He Keeps As "A Doctor In The House"

The giver of this typical statement lives near Chester, West Virginia. When he made it very recently to East Liverpool's Nerv-Worth druggist he indicated the existence of a widespread practice. Thousands "keep a bottle of Nerv-Worth handy" in their medicine chests.

Larkin's Drug Store. — We have used Nerv-Worth at our house, and think it is a very good medicine. My wife has been bothered with stomach trouble for years, and she gets a great amount of benefit from Nerv-Worth. I find it helps me whenever my stomach gets out of order or my appetite fails. Just keep a bottle handy and take a few doses, and I am all right again.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION IS WELL ATTENDED

Annual County Convention At Bloomingburg Full of Inspiration.

Reports Indicate Nearly All Schools in Good Condition Generally.

With an exceptional array of speaking talent the program of the Annual Convention of the Fayette County Sunday School Convention opened in the M. E. Church of Bloomingburg Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock. Regular attendants of the convention state that the number of representatives from all over the county exceeds any previous number.

Raymond Scott, superintendent of the M. E. Church Sunday School at Bloomingburg gave the address of welcome following the opening devotionals by Rev. Floyd Gale, of the M. E. Circuit.

With a few happy words in an impromptu manner Rev. Gale made the response.

Rev. D. A. Kearns Preston, of the First Presbyterian Church of Bloomingburg, was the first speaker of the session and devoted his time to the discussion of "Enlistment and Evangelism." The topic was further discussed, the discussion being led by David Long.

Of great interest in the convention was the facts presented by Mrs. E. L. Taylor on "The Graded Sunday School." Things relative to all Sunday Schools of the county were brought forth.

L. B. Edgar, state speaker for Sunday School conventions, gave his first address of the session on "Elements and Aids to Worship."

Rev. Karl B. Alexander, pastor of the Grace Methodist Church of this city, closed the afternoon program with a discourse of "The Church School Organized for Religious Education."

The evening session was devoted entirely to three speakers and following the opening prayer by W. Q. Kinkead the time was devoted to the interests of the boy and girl in the Sunday School.

J. L. Cadwallader, chairman of the Religious Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city, discussed "Your Boy and My Girl." Rev. W. H. Mitchell, pastor of the M. E. Church of Jeffersonville, talked of "The Boy Problem." State Speaker, L. B. Edgar, was the final speaker on "Week Day School of Religion."

All sessions of the convention are being provided over by L. W. Heinlein and special music is being rendered by a ten piece orchestra, made up of musicians of the two Bloomingburg churches.

Full reports from Fayette Sunday Schools were given at the Thursday sessions. Herbert C. Mayer, head of the Ohio Sunday Schools, was present for two talks on the closing day.

The reports made by the various Sunday School delegates indicate that the various Sunday Schools of the county are in good shape and that modern methods are being applied to hold the interest of the young folks as well as the grown-ups.

The various addresses were highly inspirational to the large number of Sunday School workers in attendance and the convention has been of great benefit to all.

Bowser-Metro Bout Arranged

The details of the new wrestling bout in this city—which gives promise of being one of the greatest if not the greatest ever held here — have been arranged, and Charles Metro the challenger, will meet Paul Bowser, the challenged, in this city on May 12th for a finish bout, winner to take all.

Metro, after the Monday night bout in which he lost in straight falls, stated that he had lost considerable sleep the two previous nights by reason of long train rides and that he was confident he could put Bowser to the mat. Bowser thinks Metro, while admitting that he is one of the hardest men to handle that he has ever met, has a mistaken idea and will endeavor to convince him that such is the case.

Leo Hyatt, who appeared here as the "Masked Marvel" but revealed his identity and refused to don the mask, is a pupil of Metro it develops, and probably will be here for a week prior to the match to work out with Metro.

Metro's inability to keep his head in the last match and his rough tactics were not well received by the crowd which, in this city at least, champions real sportsmanship in all contests.

by upholstering it in leather, velour or any other desired material. We do more, however, than just re-cover the furniture. We practically rebuild the chairs, davenport or other article, making them to all intents and purposes actually new. We shall be glad to call and give you an estimate.
